

CAPTIVATING KITCHEN The vision was to create an open concept and balance a mixture of contemporary with the traditional style of the house.

DESIGN REDUX

A RECIPE FOR SUCCESS A chic couple relocating to Atlanta from Manhattan tasked interior designer Ann Wisniewski of AJW Designs, Inc. (ajwdesignsinc.com) to craft an open plan kitchen that married contemporary style with the traditional bones of the home.

1

The Island

They wanted the island to be a statement, so location was an important choice. Silestone in Chrome was chosen for the island's countertop while the surrounding countertop is Caesarstone in Concrete. Alno Atlanta, 969 Marietta St. NW, 404.254.1928, alnoatlanta.com

2

The Cabinets

The cabinets chosen were the classic Shaker style in full overlay painted soft white with hardware in a pewter finish from Richelieu Hardware. 3280 Green Pointe Pkwy, Ste. 100, 770.326.9457, richelieu.com

3

Appliances

The clients chose the Pro-Style range from Jenn-Air, including a speed oven ($1,500), French-door refrigerator ($1,000), dishwasher ($1,400) and dual-range oven ($5,300) that gave them the benefit of electricity for the oven and gas for the cooktop. hhgregg, 3637 Peachtree Road NE, 404.460.4456, jennair.com

4

Fixtures

The pendant lighting ($250 each) is from Jamie Young Company; the 30-inch undermount sink ($285) from Kraus; the faucet ($180) from Delta. Brice LTD, 351 Peachtree Hills Ave. NE, 404.261.5846, jamieyoung.com; Paymon Design Center, 1320 Johnson Ferry Road, kraususa.com; PDI, 1121 Huff Road NW, deltafaucet.com
