

ATLANTA FACES of DESIGN

ANN & JOHN WISNIEWSKI

AJW Designs, Inc. blends the creative, award-winning styles of Ann Wisniewski and her husband John. We offer architecture and interior design services and are experts in the fields of both commercial and residential design. AJW Designs, Inc. blends John's extensive architectural and construction knowledge with Ann's expertise for creating signature interiors with modern flair and that touch of the unexpected.

We pay special attention to the individuality of every design centered on our client's needs, vision, and the functionality of the space. This approach along with our knowledge and experience, offers them the best design with enhanced options that they could not have imagined and creates spaces with increased sustainability, privacy, security, and a healthy environment in which to live, work, and most importantly thrive.

Our scope of services includes individual consultations, new construction, and re-design of both Residential and Commercial spaces.

Whether you are relocating and expanding your business, or building your dream home, updating your existing home, down-sizing to a condo, or buying a vacation getaway, let AJW DESIGNS, Inc. create that space you've always dreamed of.
